

Association of Canadian Mountain Guides

Protecting the public interest in mountain travel

ACMG Scholarship and Grant Information

June 2013

Members of the public are welcome to donate money to the ACMG. Perhaps you would like to give something back to the professional Association of a favourite guide because you had a wonderful experience under that guide's care. Perhaps you wish to assist aspiring guides in the name of a guide who tragically passed away. Or maybe you are simply interested in supporting the professional body that has developed and maintained such high standards of safety and service within the mountain community. Whatever your reason, know that all donations are gratefully accepted and very much appreciated. Below is a list of funds, any of which you may target with your donation. Cheques may be made out to The Association of Canadian Mountain Guides and sent to the main office at: Box 8341, Canmore, Alberta, Canada T1W 2V1

Important note: Although the ACMG is a non-profit organization, it is not a registered charity. Therefore we are unable to issue tax receipts.

Funds Available for Public Donations

- Ken Jones Development Fund – supports technical projects undertaken by the ACMG
- ACMG Centennial Scholarship Fund – assists promising apprentice guides to achieve full certification
- ACMG Niccy Code Scholarship Fund – assists promising female apprentice guides to achieve full certification
- ACMG Brian Ebert Scholarship Fund – assists promising apprentice guides who live and work on the West Coast of Canada
- ACMG D'Arcy McRae Memorial Scholarship – assists promising guides who live and work in the Kootenay region of British Columbia
- Karl Nagy Memorial Scholarship – assists aspiring amateur Alpine Club of Canada leaders and apprentice ACMG guides to develop their leadership and people skills.
- Claire Dixon and Cornelius Brenninkmeyer Award - in partnership with Thompson Rivers University, assists promising candidates who have completed their first phase of ski guide training

For more information on these funds, or if you wish to establish a fund in memory of an ACMG member, please contact the ACMG Executive Director at ed@acmg.ca. We thank you for your consideration.